“Making the work of the new talents of Spanish cinema who, through their short films, convey to audiences their concerns, capacities and their high degree of professionalism, is a priority for the ICAA. This is an important step for disseminating Spanish cinema and, although it may show the work of only a few directors, it is an excellent example of the good work and the talent of many others, and we encourage them to continue creating “major” films, whatever their length may be” (Óscar Graefenhain, General Manager, ICAA.).
